			is an easy-to-use software for phase identification from powder diffraction data. X Powder compares the powder diffraction pattern of a sample to a database containing reference patterns in order to identify the phases which are present. Single as well as multiple phases can be identified based on both peak data and raw (profile) data. For reference databases, you can apply the included free-of-charge IUCr/COD/AMCSD database and/or ICSD/Retrieve (if you have a valid license), use any ICDD PDF product, and/or create a user database based on your own diffraction patterns. The user database patterns can be edited manually, imported from peak files, calculated from crystal structure data (e.g. CIF files), or imported from your colleague's user database. Software included RIR based quantitative analysis as well as full pattern tools. Lead Time : 30 business day(s) If you wish to place an order with Olympus NDT, please email your Company Purchase Order to orders@olympusndt.com or fax us at 781-419-3980. Olympus NDT accepts payment by Visa, Mastercard or American Express.
