Q&A

Features:

The latest, greatest iPad Air is a wonder of function and sleek beauty. Ensure you keep this incredible device safe from the bumps and scrapes of life with the rugged, multi-layer protection of the Defender Series iPad Air case. Only at OtterBox.com can you build your own Defender Series case for iPad Air.

The Defender Series iPad Air case is the latest, greatest case from OtterBox that delivers trusted protection for your prized possession. The internal polycarbonate shell snaps together to completely cover the iPad Air. The durable synthetic rubber slip cover wraps around the internal shell to absorb and deflect impact force away from the device inside. The clear membrane screen protector is built into the internal shell to guard against scratches and scrapes, but doesn't take away from the brilliant display of the touch screen. Confidently take your iPad Air with you everywhere encased in trusted OtterBox protection from the Defender Series iPad Air case.
